Your education should help you use and develop your talents and abilities. It should also help you learn to live peacefully, protect the environment and respect other people.

Dear Parents/Guardians,

I am delighted to be able to write my first letter to you as the new Headteacher of Langtoft Primary School. I feel extremely honoured and privileged to have been chosen to continue to build upon the success the school has already achieved under the leadership of Mr McCullough.

Being a mother of two girls, aged 5 and 8, I am very much aware of the responsibility that my staff and I have in ensuring that the highest standard of teaching and learning is achieved. We have a hugely committed team and wonderful children, which of course, is a great place for any new head to start! It is an exciting time for the school as we begin a new chapter in its history.

The needs of the children are always paramount in the life and decision making within a school. I strongly believe in providing the children with exciting, creative and meaningful learning experiences, which build their enthusiasm for learning and help them to grow and develop positively in a variety of ways. I think it is crucial to involve the children and their families as partners in their education. I am also keen on building a whole school community which thrives on mutual respect and values positive relationships. I know how vital working in partnership with parents really is in order for children to find school a positive and rewarding experience. As key educators in your children's lives, I feel that it is important that you have a voice and that as a school we are approachable and allocate time to listen to your concerns, worries or thoughts about the school. After the challenges the last couple of years of lockdown have given us all, I'm very much hoping that we will be able return to normal and open our doors once again to our school family in the very near future.

I look forward to watching your children grow in confidence and knowledge during their time at Langtoft Primary and will thank you in advance for the support I know you will give all members of our school community, in the years to come.

Please do come up and introduce yourselves outside school – I will attempt to be at the gate before and after school each day. I look forward to getting to know you all in the coming weeks.

With best wishes,

Mrs B Wood
